

MAGNATES AWARD FLAG TO ROANOKE

Virginia League Directors Throw Out Last Game at Norfolk.

TALK PROTESTS FOR MANY HOURS

Final Verdict Is No Postponed Contest Shall Be Played on Any Field Other Than That on Which It Is Regularly Scheduled.

Revised Standings of Virginia League Clubs

Club	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Roanoke	73	40	.599
Norfolk	72	40	.595
Richmond	68	46	.595
Danville	60	62	.492
Portsmouth	40	72	.405
Lynchburg	50	74	.405

PRESIDENTS of the Danville, Portsmouth and Richmond Baseball Clubs, sitting as the executive board of the Virginia State League, last night voted unanimously to throw out the last game played in Norfolk on Saturday, and on motion of W. W. Clarke, of Danville, awarded the pennant race for 1909 to the Roanoke Club. As the controversy was between Roanoke and Norfolk, these two teams were not entitled to a ballot. Lynchburg was not represented.

The decision of the magnates was reached at 7 o'clock, after a stormy session lasting more than three hours. Every phase of the situation was discussed, and President Wells, who presided at the meeting, was sustained in every particular. There were six games to be considered, and in five of them the protests were declared not sustained, but in regard to the transfer of the last game of the season from Portsmouth to Norfolk, President Williams, of Roanoke, succeeded in carrying his point.

The ruling was that the transfer of a postponed game from one city to another is in violation of the constitution of the league, which expressly states that no such game shall, under any circumstances, be played on any field other than that on which it would have been played under the regular schedule. The rule, it is explained, is an ironclad one, and cannot be changed either by the president or by a majority vote of the board of directors.

The first game in Norfolk Saturday was the regularly scheduled one, and as two-thirds of the directors agreed that it should be transferred, there was no violation, and Roanoke's protest was not sustained. It is especially emphasized that President Consolvo, of Norfolk, was warned personally by Mr. Wells not to allow the transfer of the second contest in the double-header, and his action was renewed later by Secretary Gregory.

Secretary Gregory says: "I did all in my power to prevent such a controversy, and the result is Norfolk loses the flag. I am not surprised."

Mr. Wells reached this city from Savannah, Ga., yesterday morning, and by noon all other representatives were in the city.

Magnates Met Early.

Realizing that several hours would probably be consumed in dispute, and fearing lest to wait until 8 o'clock would mean probably an all-night session, he succeeded in getting to work before 4 o'clock. The magnates met in a private room at Norfolk hotel, and no outsiders were admitted. No intimation of what was going on inside could be obtained, and until the information reported, not a line was learned.

Those present were W. W. Clarke, of Danville; C. R. Williams, of Roanoke; S. T. Hanger, of Portsmouth; Edward Cheshire, of Norfolk; W. B. Bradley, of Richmond; Jake Wells, E. N. Gregory and Attorney William H. Sands. The second motion to throw out the Norfolk game was made by Mr. Bradley. So thoroughly were the directors convinced of the fairness of Mr. Williams' claim that it took but one ballot to carry the point in his favor.

Mr. Williams left for Roanoke at 3 o'clock last night. His last words before leaving were: "I have gotten no more than I expected to get at the hands of my colleagues, as I never had a doubt that our men were entitled to first position. I do not intend to appeal other protests to the National Commission, and as far as I am concerned, we are perfectly satisfied with the decision as given. I really think, however, that we have a just title to several other games. We will be great rejoicing at home when the news reaches Roanoke."

President Wells would not discuss the decision other than to explain the ruling. He did say, however, that he is not to blame for the manner in which his warning to Norfolk was ignored. He did not take five minutes to see that there was no fair way in which the final game could be played other than in Portsmouth, and I did not take long to wire my conclusion to Norfolk. I am glad for the sake of the league that things have turned out as they have."

With the close of business yesterday, which was entirely with reference to the award of the pennant, the directors adjourned subject to the call of President Wells.

The magnates will get together again, probably in November, when the questions of changes in the circuit and other matters affecting the future of the league will be taken up. The ar-

MANOEUVRES ARE ON

Little War Being Fought by Armies of the Kaiser.

MERGEN, Germany, September 13.—The annual manoeuvres of the imperial army began here today. It was 11 o'clock in the morning when, as a result of political tension between two imaginary states, the Red and the Blue, war was declared, and word sent forth through the air by 2,000 officers and men. Emperor William arrived on the field at 1 o'clock. He mounted a horse in the blue territory and watched the advance. The royal majesty is living in the plaid quarters and will motor out each day to the scene of the manoeuvres.

The military dirigible Grosse II, made its first appearance on the field today. The airship ascended in the morning mist and hovered at a low altitude. It was not long before the enemy observed it, and the Reds' machine guns were directed at it. The dirigible retired and vanished in the mist, but it is rumored here tonight that the airship was caught in a tree and was later captured by the Reds.

OUTBREAK THREATENED

Mexico Is Facing Serious Rebellion in Northern Territory.

MEXICO CITY, September 13.—The Federal army headquarters of the third military zone continues to receive insistent rumors of an intended outbreak September 15 and 16 in the Northern part of the republic. General Trujillo, in command of the zone, declares that he is ready for any emergency. The situation is considered doubly perilous by the present complete disorganization of the railroad system as a result of the strike. President Brown, of the National Lines, has instructed General Manager Hark, who is now on the scene, to make complete arrangements for the trackage and place all the resources of the railroad at the disposal of the military authorities in case of necessity.

General Bernardo Reyes, the political opponent of President Diaz, appeared in the city yesterday. Monterey last night dressed as a ranchman. He was applauded by the populace.

AMERICAN SAILORS BARRED

They Will Be Given No Free Rides on New York Lines.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13.—Liberal construction of a law enacted by Congress to prevent the sailing of the American fleet from enjoying free transportation on the New York subway and the "L" lines of the Inlandborough Metropolitan Company at the coming Hudson-Fulton celebration, President Theodore P. Shonts is willing to grant free transportation to all the visiting sailors in accordance with a suggestion made by Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop. If Mr. Winthrop requests it, the latter is expected to make a recommendation to the Americans, because of a law which provides that no executive department or official shall accept or receive any gift, favor or privilege from any foreign power or government unless there is danger of the loss of human life or the destruction of property.

The sailors will be given a distinctive badge, which will entitle them to the courtesies of the Interborough.

FUNERAL OF O'BRIEN

Nearly 2,000 People Pay Last Tribute to Dead Man.

NEW YORK, September 13.—Nearly 2,000 persons, most of them employees in the dead man's various enterprises, attended the funeral of Colonel Michael J. O'Brien, president of the Southern Express Company, at St. Patrick's cathedral here today. The pallbearers were M. F. Plant, C. H. Hyams, T. W. Leary, G. H. Tilly, H. M. Flagler, R. C. McGowan, Louis Carey, W. Reick, J. D. McGowan, Louis Carey, H. Oliver, H. S. Morris, W. B. Bradley, Dr. H. S. Norris, G. Deane, and others. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock, and the body was taken to the cemetery at 11 o'clock.

CANAL ZONE NOT INCLUDED

New Tariff Law Does Not Apply to the Territory.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13.—The new tariff law of August 5 last does not apply to the Isthmian Canal zone, according to a decision given by Acting Attorney-General Wade H. Ellis to the Secretary of War and announced today. The law, it is stated, is not one of the "possessions" of the United States within the meaning of that term. It is a first-class canal, and the tariff acts, says the Attorney-General, rather is a place subject to the use, occupation and control of the United States.

RESTS WITH MISS ELKINS

She Can Have the Duke by Saying the Word.

PARIS, September 13.—A high personage, in touch with previous preliminary arrangements regarding the marriage of the Duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, said today that, contrary to the popular impression, the duke had not yet said "I do" to objections on the part of the Italian royal family, but to the attitude of Miss Elkins herself.

"The duke," said this authority, "no obstacle would be placed in the way of the marriage by his family. The only obstacle rests with Miss Elkins herself. If she should say the word, the duke would be at her side to-morrow, and the marriage would not long be delayed."

HURLED THROUGH WINDOWS

Women Terribly Injured by Boiler Explosion in Bath-House.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., September 13.—Half a score of women were injured today, probably fatally, when a boiler in the Lurline baths exploded today. Women patrons were blown through the windows of the building, and the building was almost completely wrecked. From the second floor of the structure men and women were blown through great gaps in the walls and the windows. Mrs. Eliza Richter was hurled through a window far into the street. She is not expected to survive.

BISHOP HENDRICK BETTER

AUBURN, N. Y., September 13.—Word has been received in this city that the condition of Bishop Thomas Hendrick, of Cuba, P. L., who, on Saturday, was reported to be dangerously ill, shows slight improvement. A cablegram received this afternoon stated that Bishop Hendrick is suffering from pneumonia and kidney trouble, and while his condition shows improvement, he is not yet out of danger.

PEARY IS ANXIOUS TO REACH NEW YORK

He Is Fearful Lest His Rival Get There First.

BOATSWAIN TELLS STORY OF LOOTING

Confirms Statement of Cook That His Stores Were Taken—News-paper Men Reach Peary and Hear Details of His Dash to the Pole.

BATTLE HARBOR, LABRADOR, September 13.—The Associated Press tug Douglas H. Thomas arrived here this afternoon. Commander Peary's steamer, the Roosevelt, was found to be in good condition, and will leave Battle Harbor on Thursday or Friday for North Sydney. From that port the Roosevelt will proceed to New York, and if it is possible she will take part in the naval parade at the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Captain Bartlett is extremely anxious to weigh anchor and return to civilization, but as there is danger of encountering storms so prevalent in this season on the treacherous Labrador coast, every precaution will be taken to put the Roosevelt in as seaworthy condition as possible. Under the best of circumstances, the steamer is bound to make a slow run to Sydney, probably not more than five knots an hour.

Commander Peary also is anxious lest Dr. Cook should reach New York first, although he adds that the Brooklyn explorer's attempts to induce scientists to believe his story will be futile.

May Board Newspaper Boat.

SYDNEY, N. S., September 13.—The government steamer Tyrion, with the newspaper correspondents, left North Sydney to-night to meet Commander Peary and the Arctic ship. The steamer is expected to arrive in New York tomorrow. Efforts will be made to get Commander Peary to board the Tyrion, which is a much faster ship than the Roosevelt, and come to Sydney. It is believed here that the Tyrion will have difficulty in making the dash to New York, as the latter steamer has left Battle Harbor. At 8 o'clock to-night a wireless dispatch said that Captain Bartlett, of the Roosevelt, was making final preparations for an early start to-morrow morning, but the same dispatch stated that the steamer was in bad shape.

Peary, who is now in the Arctic ship, is expected to reach New York tomorrow. He is expected to reach New York tomorrow. He is expected to reach New York tomorrow.

Boatswain Confirms Story.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., September 13.—Alan White, boatswain of the Peary auxiliary steamer Erik in 1905, and again in 1908, adds his quota to the polar controversy to-day. On his expeditions he saw much of Peary and knew of Peary's plans.

He was on the Erik in the summer of 1907 when she lay for a week in Sydney alongside the schooner John R. Bradley, in which Dr. Cook was starting for the pole.

Whitten says that the Bradley was abundantly equipped for Cook's expedition, having supplies for at least three years. He confirms the charge made by Dr. Cook at Copenhagen that Peary's people took Cook's provisions, adding that not only did the crew of the ship take Cook's stores that were at Etah, but that boats were sent to Annotok, thirty miles distant, to remove Cook's provisions which were stored there.

Whitten admitted, however, that he did not know if this removal was by arrangement between Rudolph Francke, who was left in charge of the Erik, and Peary or Peary's representatives.

The boatswain also made the statement that both Cook's and Francke's collections of ivory and skins, some of them very valuable, had been taken. He said that he was in trouble with the lack of supplies. Instead of remaining away for three years, Commander Peary was compelled to return after about fifteen months, the reason, Whitten declared, being that he had not enough supplies to remain longer.

Polar Heat Is Unabated.

NEW YORK, September 13.—That polar polemic does not seem to generate but maintain unabated such heat, needed the proof of seeing and hearing the two men, and that Dr. Cook's attitude toward Peary now in touch with the correspondents, two swelling streams of conflicting affidavits are now centered on a hot volume.

Previous assumption that Commander Peary would have the United States navy soldier behind him was not borne out in a letter from Rear-Admiral Schley (retired) made public today by Captain E. S. Osborn, secretary of the Arctic Club of America, of which Dr. Cook is a member. The letter, under date of September 11, from Peconic Manor, N. Y., runs in part as follows: "I like Cook's attitude immensely in this unfortunate, unnecessary and unwise controversy. He certainly has been dignified and brave in the face of a very unkind attack."

Captain Osborn followed up his letter from the admiral to-night with the statement in "Who Discovered the North Pole."

"Dr. Frederick A. Cook," he said, "was for two years my wife's physician. I saw him two or three times and we chatted many hours. If I have ever known a man of integrity, probity, sincerity and modesty, it is Dr. Cook."

Deserter From Truth.

"I have known also other fellows—knows him to desert from truth by large margins."

After a meeting of the executive committee of the Arctic Club of America to-night, Dr. R. O. Stebbins, its chairman, gave the club's attitude on the controversy.

"The Arctic Club of America," he said, "has nothing to do with the controversy over the discovery of the pole. All that the Arctic Club recognizes is that the pole was discovered by Dr. Cook."

SUTTON'S BODY EXHUMED

Examination Disproves Contentment of Young Lieutenant's Mother.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13.—When the body of Lieutenant James N. Sutton, Jr., the young marine officer who met his death about two years ago at Annapolis, was exhumed at Arlington Cemetery this afternoon, an autopsy performed by physicians representing the Navy Department and young Sutton's mother, disclosed the fact that no bones were broken, although a contusion was found over the right eye.

It had been Mrs. Sutton's contention that her son's arm had been broken in the fight which preceded his death, and that this being the case, the shot which ended his life could not have been self-inflicted.

Mr. George Tully Vaughan, of this city, who represented Mrs. Sutton at the autopsy, said to-night that the bullet wound which caused his death was three inches above the right ear, and that the body was in no indication that the hair and scalp had been burned by powder. Surgeon Speas, who represented the Navy Department, declined to make a statement to-night, saying that he intended to make a report direct to the Navy Department.

Attorney Van Dyke, associated counsel for Mrs. Sutton, to-night was convinced that the shot had been fired at least five feet from the officer's head, and that the wound showed conclusively that it was a physical impossibility for Sutton to have fired the shot.

After the autopsy had been completed, the body was placed in a new coffin, provided by the government, and was reinterred in the same grave at the ground had been consecrated by Rev. Father Alonzo Olds, of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, this city.

DARING ROBBERY

Jeweler Bound in Rocking-Chair While Store Is Looted.

BALTIMORE, MD., September 13.—Shortly before noon to-day, while traffic on Gay Street was heavy, and the store of a jeweler was passing by a partitioned back door, while two robbers deliberately went over his stock and selected rings valued at $250, and a watch valued at $100, and $300 in cash, which he says they took from the money drawer.

The men were in the store about fifteen minutes, and then left. The jeweler, who was bound in a rocking chair, told them that he was standing near the back of his store when two men entered and asked to see some watches. The jeweler, who was bound in a rocking chair, told them that he was standing near the back of his store when two men entered and asked to see some watches.

The jeweler says he waited about five minutes before he was released. He then went to the back of his store and found the money drawer empty. He then went to the back of his store and found the money drawer empty.

Later, other small robberies in the neighborhood of Ruman's place were reported to the police.

MORGAN'S FAILURE CAUSES SURPRISE

Wall Street Had Believed Union Pacific in His Grasp.

HARRIMAN'S PLACE TAKEN BY LOVETT

Election of Dead Financier's Righthand Man Means Continuation of Present Policies.

NEW YORK, September 13.—The continuation of the Harriman policy in the management of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and the chain of allied railroads was made certain to-day, temporarily at least, when Robert S. Lovett, E. H. Harriman's personal counsel and close friend, was elected to succeed Mr. Harriman at the head of the executive committee of the Union Pacific Railroad. To strengthen further the dominance of "the Harriman idea" Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller, both heavily interested in the Harriman enterprise, were elected to the place of Mr. Harriman and the late H. H. Rogers, and also were chosen to places on the executive committee.

The Union Pacific remains without a president, as Mr. Harriman occupied that position also. It is understood, however, that an operating man—probably L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson—will be elected for the place at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held on October 12.

The office which Judge Lovett assumed to-day is the most important in the management and financial supervision of the Union Pacific.

Will Meet To-Day.

The directors of the Southern Pacific will meet to-morrow. It is taken for granted that their action is fully foretold by to-day's meeting, and that Judge Lovett will be seated as chairman of that executive committee also in Mr. Harriman's place, with Jacob H. Schiff, or some other partner in the firm of Kuhn and Loeb and Company, at his right hand as director and member of the executive committee.

As it stands to-day the executive committee remains, in the parlance of the street, a "Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil-board." For, besides Judge Lovett, Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller, the members are: J. C. Frick, of Pittsburgh; Marvin H. Hargrave, of the Chicago and North-western, and Frank A. Vanderbilt, of the National City Bank, New York.

The failure of the Morgan interests to gain a place on the reconstructed board is a surprise to Wall Street, where last week's rumors had been given general credence.

Judge Lovett, who in view of his new position is a surprise to Wall Street, was the most prominent railroad man in the public eye, came to New York City in 1904. Born in Texas forty-nine years ago, he came to the railroad business while a boy, a freight clerk for the Houston, East and West Texas Railroad, at Houston.

He studied law at night, and eventually became a country counsel for the railroad, a district counsel and then general counsel. He became so valuable to this system under Mr. Harriman that he was made general counsel, with offices at Houston. Three years ago Harriman brought him to this city.

SUPERVISORS OUSTED

Taft Makes Sudden Changes in Southern Districts.

ATLANTA, GA., September 13.—According to the Constitution, President Taft has telegraphed Congressman Livingston, of the Fifth Georgia District, to-day, informing him that Joseph W. Brand, according to the Constitution, has been removed as supervisor of the district, and Sullivan, a Republican, has been named to succeed him. Brand, a Democrat, of Griffin, named to succeed him.

The action was due to political activity on the part of the original appointees. The announcement of the changes created much surprise here.

In the event of the liquor sellers declining to respond to the summonses, they will be taken by force if necessary.

HUNTING AMERICAN SHIP

Taft May Be Compelled to Travel Unhindered.

WASHINGTON, September 13.—Dismissing the suggestion that President Taft's party, which will inspect New Orleans harbor on October 10, next, "must make the trip under a foreign flag," Acting Secretary of Commerce and Navy Mr. McFarland has advised the collector of customs of that port that efforts will be made to secure American vessels for the President's inspection of New Orleans harbor. Mr. McFarland says in his letter, dated to-day: "The department prefers not to answer the legal question until after we have made, for which there is ample time, to secure American vessels for the purpose. It is reluctant to believe that our private citizens, or a foreign shipping has so dwindle that to enable the President of the United States to make a trip under a foreign flag, representative Americans to spend a few hours on the greatest American river with a view to its improvement and to make the trip under a foreign flag."

To-morrow morning a formal request will be made by the sheriff asking that the county offer a liberal reward for the apprehension or conviction of the slayer of the girl.
